

Shakespeare in Southern Africa

JOURNAL OF THE SHAKESPEARE SOCIETY OF SOUTHERN AFRICA

ISSN 1011-582X

VOLUME 35 2022

Editorial

CHRIS THURMAN 1

Research articles

Sounding the Polyphonic Cacophony of Macbeth with a Young Jozi Ensemble
SARAH ROBERTS 4

“Light thickens; and the crow/Makes wing to the rooky wood”: Birds and the blurring of boundaries between real and metaphorical nature in Joel Coen’s Macbeth
ANYA HEISE-VON DER LIPPE 19

Roundtable: Macbeth and birds, on stage and screen
ANSTON BOSMAN, SARAH ROBERTS AND ANYA HEISE-VON DER LIPPE 32

Carmelo Bene’s Misreadings of Hamlet and Macbeth: A decolonial perspective?
RAPHAEL D’ABDON 39

The Age, the Stage – and Touchstone: Shakespeare and Sidney reconsidered
PETER TITLESTAD 54

Reviews

Reimagining King Lear – and Capitalism
CAREL NOLTE 68

Quizzical Shakespeare: Balancing information and informality
LINDA RITCHIE 71

Reproduced with permission of copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.